Profiter de l'instant / Seize the Day

Inspiré par l'univers nautique, ce banc aux lignes courbes en teck cerclé d'inox trouve sa place dans un cadre maritime et fluvial. Son allure dynamique et très urbaine se conjugue avec une assise bois chaleureuse qui invite à la convivialité. On s'y installe confortablement pour contempler le paysage. La version initiale a été enrichie d'une version acier et chêne, plus accessible.

Driven by the nautical world, this bench with its curved teak lines and stainless steel frame is perfect for maritime and river settings. Its dynamic and very urban look is combined with a warm wooden seat that invites conviviality. You can sit comfortably and contemplate the landscape. The initial version has been enriched with a more accessible steel and oak version.
